Loss by re-sale 248-10-0 455-2-10

I dont quite understand this:

The resale took place on 6/9/96. The amount due on the date thereof was 117-5-0 + 117-15-0 + 19-8-10 = 254-2-10 − 72 = 182-2-10. How does the Collector make out that it was Rs 206-8-0

The loss by re-sale is shown at Rs 27-10-0 per annum for 9 76 months. This comes to Rs 271-10-4 not 248-10-0.

If the man failed to make the deposit or give security why was he allowed to hold the farm till 6/9/96 when a re-sale being held at once? Was not the farm worked in the interest? If so why were arrears Khists recovered from the man?

The inaccuracy of figures entered in Columns 16 & 17 of the Statement is admitted & correct figures have been reported for insertion.

The farm was not worked in July & August.
The circumstances which led to the delay in the resale of the farm were:—

The first sale seems to have been held on 27-5-96 on which date the deposit amount Rs. 72, was paid up by Mathew.
The order confirming the sale was issued on 14-6-96, & notice calling for Security and was issued by Amildar on 18.6-96. The Insp^r got this on 22-6-96 but he could not serve it on Mathew as the latter had gone away to Coorg. Under the Amildar's orders the Insp^r went after the man, served notice on him on 14-7-96 at Samivar -Sante in Coorg and induced him to go with him to Sakleshpur. Here he made some effort to effect a transfer of the farm but no one came forward to take it up & he decamped about the 19th or 20th July 1896.
On 26.7.96 the D^t Commr ordered that Mathew should be fined Rs. 4 for the first default & that he should be warned that in case of further default the farm would be resold. The D^t Com^r approved of the Amildar's proposal to effect a transfer of the farm and the Inspector was again sent to bring Mathew. The Inspector found him on 22-8-96 (probably in Coorg) but the man refused to go & said that the deposit amount might be confiscated & the farm resold by the Ruler. Proclamations were issued on 26-8-96 for resale, which was held on the 1st & 2nd Sept. 96 with the result that the highest bid did not exceed 70 Rs.
The D^t Commr thereupon induced one Hasiappachar, on 6.9.96, to take up the farm for Rs. 90-5. including Local Cess.

The Amildar knew nothing about Mathew & at the time of sale he expressed

Sir,

In submitting herewith copy of the marginally noted correspondence together with a Remission Statement for Rs 455-2-10 in favor of one Mathew, purchaser of the Maggé Toddy Vend Farm in the Manjerabad taluk, for the year 1896-97, I have the honor to state that the Amildar explains that at the time of Sale it was not known to him that the defaulter was a man of straw, and that he was therefore permitted to bid; that as soon as the farm was knocked down to him, he deposited Rs 72, but failed to pay the balance of the Security deposit; and that the farm was therefore therefore ——————— resold at his risk, he having deposed on the 22nd August 1896 that those who promised to help him, deceived him, and that he therefore could not carry on the business himself. It has been ascertained — that the defaulter is a resident of Coorg, and possess no property. The loss which accrued by the resale of the farm, amounts to Rs.455-2-10. This figure has been verified by the Comptroller. I beg to recommend that, as the amount is irrecoverable, it may be ordered to be written off the accounts.

Sir,

I have the honor to report that one Mathew purchased the privilege of selling date toddy in the Nagge circle for the year 1896-97, Manjerabad Taluk, at a monthly rental of Rs 117-15-0, including Local Cess. He deposited Rs 72-0-0 directly the sale was closed. But failed to furnish cash or personal security according to rules. The farm was therefore resold and one Alasingrachar purchased the same for a monthly rental of Rs 90-5-0, including Cess.

Necessary

Necessary orders were issued to the Amildar to recover the loss from Mathew. This man is not a native of Manjerabad Taluk. The Amildar reports that he is a cooly and that there is no means of recovering the loss from him

2. Under these circumstances, I beg to submit herewith a remission statement for Rs 455-2-10 and request you will kindly obtain early sanction of Government to the amount being struck off the accounts.

(1) Letter re $\frac{579}{33}$ dated 15th July 1897 from the Excise Commissioner in Mysore recommending the remission of Rs. 455-2-10 due by J. Mather, Toddy Vend farmer of Magge in the Kanjarakad Taluk for 1896-97.

(2) Letter re $\frac{3127}{145}$ dated the 13th October 1897 from the same officer stating with reference to this office re $\frac{1236}{48}$ dated 28 July 1897 that the amount due on account of arrears is Rs. 183-8-6 and that due on account of loss by resale Rs. 271-10-4, and forwarding the vernacular records relating to the sale & resale of the farm. ✓ cc: 14 file

Order - No: $\frac{3878 \cdot 79}{\text{Ex. } 131}$ d 30.10.97 30.

The defaulter in question J. Mather was a native of Magge ~~doing~~ working as a carpenter ~~in daily hire~~ in Coorg and it is reported that he possesses no property. After the sale, he went back to Coorg apparently without any intention of returning to work the farm, but he did not inform the Excise authorities of this and ~~near~~ two months and a half were spent in endeavours to find out his where abouts & serve notices, and in inspections efforts made to have the farm transferred to others. During this period the farm was not worked and at the resale the amount offered was Rs. 27-10- per mensem less than Mathews bid. A sum of Rs. 183-8-6 is reported to be due from Mather on account of rents from 1st July 1896 up to 5th Sept. 1896, and of Rs. 271-10-4 on account of loss by resale; and under the circumstances referred to sanction is accorded to the remission of these sums aggregating Rs. 455-2-10.

The Officer who conducted the first sale appears to have allowed Mather to bid without satisfying themselves by proper enquiry as to his solvency. The attention of the Excise Commissioner is invited to the instructions conveyed in Govt. Secretariat No. 3148-57/116 dated 22nd September 1897.
